What Is the Show-Me Service Conference?

The Show-Me Service Conference is a statewide conference of national service programs in Missouri. It is sponsored by the Missouri Community Service Commission (Department of Economic Development), the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, and the Missouri Office of the Corporation for National and Community Service. The sponsoring agencies receive federal funding to maintain their programs, which focus on service to the community in the areas of public safety, homeland security, environment, education, and human needs. The programs are:

- AmeriCorps (college-age students and adults)
- Service-Learning (school-age children)
- SeniorCorps (adults over age 55)
- VISTA (college-age students and adults)

Who Should Attend?

The conference is for members and directors of national service programs, K-12 teachers and principals, college and university professionals, community partners, and anyone interested in national service.

What Are the Topics?

Participants will receive training in a variety of areas such as:

- Linking service to learning
- Leadership
- Youth development
- Community partnerships and outreach
- Time management
- Volunteer management
- Financial management
- Diversity
- Disability awareness or issues
- History, civics, and citizenship
- Service with faith-based groups
- Service project ideas
- Sustainability

National service programs:

- engage participants in real world learning experiences through service to their communities
- help educators address state standards
- help students increase academic achievement and attendance
- foster citizenship, civic responsibility, and positive character development
- change people's lives forever
